

Press Release

AlpInvest adds three senior professionals to its Secondary Investments team

Amsterdam, 8 November 2007 AlpInvest Partners N.V. (AlpInvest) announces that in October 2007, Mr. Chris Perriello and Mr. Michael Hacker joined the New York office of AlpInvest in its Secondary Investments team. Earlier this year, Mr. Gunter Waldner joined the Amsterdam office of AlpInvest in its Secondary Investments team.

Chris Perriello joined as a Principal. Previously, Chris was a Principal on the primary fund investment team of Paul Capital Partners. Prior to that, Chris worked for INVESCO Private Capital, where he completed primary fund investments, secondary transactions and direct investments. Prior to INVESCO Private Capital, Chris worked as an Equity Analyst at AMVESCAP. Chris holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from the University of Pittsburgh and earned his MBA from the Georgia Institute of Technology.

Michael Hacker joined as an Investment Manager. Previously, Michael was an Associate Director in the private equity secondary advisory group of UBS Investment Bank. Prior to that, Michael worked in the Leveraged Finance Group at CIBC World Markets and the fixed income department at JP Morgan & Co. Michael graduated cum laude from Williams College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and earned his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

Gunter Waldner joined as a Principal. Previously, Gunter was an Executive Director in Lehman Brothers Europe's Investment Banking division. Gunter holds a master degree in business and economics from Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration.

About AlpInvest Partners N.V.

AlpInvest Partners is one of the largest private equity investors in the World with over EUR 40 billion (USD 58 billion) of assets under management. Approximately 80% of these funds are invested by AlpInvest Partners in private equity funds globally, including through Secondary transactions, with the remainder invested directly in companies as a co-investor in Europe and the US. AlpInvest Partners recently received a EUR 2bn Mandate for Mezzanine investments in Europe and the US. AlpInvest Partners has over 60 investment professionals based in Amsterdam, Hong Kong, New York and London (spring 2008). Its main clients and shareholders are ABP and PGGM, two of the largest pension funds in the world with respectively EUR 215 billion and EUR 85 billion of assets under management (as per June 2007). To learn more about AlpInvest Partners visit www.alpinvest.com

For more information:

AlpInvest Partners N.V.

Volkert Doeksen, Managing Partner and Chief Executive Officer

Tel: +31 (0)20 540 7520

Tjarko Hektor, Partner

Tel: + 1 212 332 6270